

Members Present: Angie Spencer, Janet Morey, Jean Murdock, John Michailo, Kerri Gallenbeck, Janet Brown, Cindy Eckert, Larry Wright, Vicky Wright, Amy Walker, Lori Robinson, Lynn Paro Debin.

Meeting called to order at 7:04 pm.

Presidents Report: Nothing new to report.

Vice Presidents Report: Seven Thank you letters went out to different businesses who donated various items in support of the Swartz Creek Instrumental Music Program. The students who participated in the Cedar Point fundraiser were awarded with coupons to Burger King for a free whopper. The winner of the raffle ticket is the uncle of Alyssa Sayles. We had an overall profit from the Cedar Point trip of $151.00. A breakdown of the funds was provided by Cindy. A recommendation for next year is that two more individuals are needed. One for checking uniforms and the other to check instruments prior to departure. Next year we will also look into catering a meal for the kids from Quiznos. CD's are available of the trip for $5.00.

Secretaries Report: A spelling correction was made of Kendall Printing. Lori made a motion to accept the minutes as written. Cindy seconded. All approved.

Treasurer's Report: Unavailable at this meeting

Old Business: Decorations for the senior table came to a total of $45.00. Vicky will receive reimbursement for this total. The church will be open at 3:00 for decorating on the 13th of November. Janet Brown is providing the cake for the banquet. A motion was made by Lori to give Janet back the funds she paid towards the banquet as a Thank you for doing the cake at no charge. John seconded the motion and all approved.

New Business: Extra help is needed for the Barnes and Noble event on the 27th & 28th of November. Phone calls will be made to look for more volunteers. Discussion about advertising for the two days was discussed and information will be given to schools, newspapers, and television stations.

Mr. Michailo stated that October was a very busy month this year and we need to look at alternating either Cedar Point or Brandon Invitational next year. As soon as we can look at next year's schedule, a decision will be made.

A profit of $195.00 was made for the online catalog portion of the band fundraiser according to Jean. The DJ that was at the dance at the end of band camp is offering to DJ another dance for us that would be held on a day that custodians are at the school. John will check on the times that the custodians are in the building.

There are too many uniform pieces being left after performances. A discussion was had as to what to do about this. After much discussion, a motion was made by Lynette that if any uniform pieces are left behind after performances an ATS (Alternative To Suspension) will be issued. Vicky seconded this and all approved.

We are looking for door prizes for the holiday concert. Cindy has a letter to be sent out looking for these donations.

Lynette provided information on wreath sales as a fundraiser. Flyers will be handed out at the banquet as well as the students will be told about it. Lynette made a motion to sell, Kerri seconded, all approved. The pickup will be on December 5, 2009 from 10:00-1:00.

Next meeting held November 24, 2009 at Swartz Creek High School band room.

Angie made a motion to adjourn. John seconded. All approved.

Minutes respectfully submitted by Kerri Gallenbeck
